

High Cost of Lovin

Luke Deuce

My love life's been a hard luck night in Vegas
I've rolled the dice, a loser every time
Stepped out on the faith that I'd found true love
But always ended up towin' the line

I met this little sweet heart down in Tulsa
Hardly tell we hit the Oklahoma line
When we stopped for gas she said to me "Let's marry!"
Then drove off while I paid the man inside

CHORUS

*I can't take this high cost of lovin'
I don't believe romance is in my cards
No, I can't pay this high cost of lovin' no more
Cause what it winds up breaking is my heart*

Well, I thought my luck had changed one night in Memphis
When this redhead caught my green eyes by surprise
Every word that rolled off of her sweet lips
Shot a hole right through my wounded pride

One slow dance and two glasses of whiskey
Man, I could see the river paradise
But about the time my passion starting rising
Her jealous husband took me down to size

CHORUS 2x
