

Calling It Your Job, Don't Make It Right

Luke Deuce

Manager called for a mandatory meeting
Disguised it as a party late one evening
The clock wasn't punched and nobody got paid
Noone said a word cause everyone one was afraid
So I stood up and called him out the day

Chorus

*Calling it your job, boss, that don't make it right
Just because you're the top dog don't mean you control my life
The ass you're kickin' today you might be kissin' tomorrow
So here's a piece of advice that you can borrow
Calling it your job, boss, that don't make it right*

Might be young but I'm old school
I give my all in everything that I do
I try to walk a mile in someone elses boots
Showing respect while I'm paying my dues
Understanding peoples' point of views

Chorus

From politicians to the man on the news
Take a look in mirror and tell us the truth

Chorus 2x
